

Eligibility of Non-Business Majors for Enrolling in Upper Division Courses

Students from outside the College of Business are eligible to take up to 9 credits in 300-level and above business courses without meeting the College's admission requirements, as long as they meet course pre-requisites. Students who desire to take more than 9 credits, however, must meet the College's professional program admission requirements.