

Academic Affairs Council
Approved March 7, 2006
Approved by Executive Board March 21, 2006

Delete this sentence in the university catalog:

“Undergraduates in any college may elect to meet the requirements of any undergraduate minor offered in the university.”

The rationale for the second is that there are now minors available that may not be taken by all students. For example, there is a minor in business that business students may not enroll in because the courses are all part of their major. The same applies to the proposed minor in Engineering Studies