

Revised by the Governments and Documents Committee 10/16/07.

8.4.8. Policy Regarding Open Meetings at Iowa State

State law does not require that university committee meetings be open to the public, except for the Athletic Council and the Leopold Center Advisory Board. The university promotes the principle of open meetings; however, a meeting may be closed when necessary for the proper functioning of the committee.